

National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA)

Dothan Pediatric Clinic has received national recognition as a patient-centered medical home from the National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA). Medical practices achieving this recognition are identified for delivering superior care using standards firmly rooted in medical evidence. DPC is the first practice of any specialty in the state to receive this recognition.

